PLAINTIFFS' FIRST SET OF REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
DIRECTED TO THE INTERNATIONAL ISLAMIC RELIEF ORGANIZATION

Plaintiffs in Federal Insurance Co. v. al Qaida, Case No. 03-CV-6978 (RCC), Kathleen Ashton v. al Qaeda Islamic Army, Case No. 02-CV-6977 (RCC), and Thomas E. Burnett, Sr. v. Al Baraka Inv. & Dev. Corp., Case No. 03-CV-9849 (RCC) (collectively "Plaintiffs"), propound and serve on the International Islamic Relief Organization, (hereinafter "IIRO" or "Defendant") the following Requests for Production of Documents to be answered fully and under oath, pursuant to Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, within 30 days of their receipt.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. In producing documents and other things, Defendant is requested to furnish all documents or things in his possession, custody or control, regardless of whether such documents or things are possessed directly by Defendant or by Defendant's employees, agents, attorneys, accountants, auditors, investigators, or other representatives.

2. Documents are to be produced in full; redacted documents will not constitute compliance with this request. If any requested document or thing cannot be produced in full, Defendant is requested to produce it to the extent possible, indicating which document or portion of that document is being withheld and the reason that document is being withheld.

3. In producing documents, Defendant is requested to produce the original of each document requested together with all non-identical copies and drafts of that document. If the original of any document cannot be located, an identical copy shall be provided in lieu thereof, and shall be legible and bound or stapled in the same manner as the original.

4. Documents shall be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business and the documents shall be organized and labeled to correspond to the categories in this request. All documents shall be produced in the file folder, envelope or other container in which the documents are kept or maintained by Defendant. If, for any reason, the container cannot be produced, produce copies of all labels or other identifying marks.

5. Documents shall be produced in such fashion as to identify any organization, department, branch or office in whose possession it was located and, where applicable, the natural person in whose possession it was found and the business address of each document's custodian.

6. Documents attached to each other should not be separated.

7. If any documents requested herein have been lost, discarded, destroyed or otherwise no longer in Defendant's possession, custody or control, they shall be identified as completely as possible including, without limitations, the following information: date of disposal, manner of disposal, reason for disposal, person authorizing the disposal and person disposing of the document.

8. Documents shall be produced in such fashion as to identify which request(s) they are responsive to.

9. Each of these requests shall be continuing. If at any time after production of these requests any information becomes available that calls for any supplement to a previous response, provide such documents within a reasonable time period from the time when it becomes available.

10. If Defendant asserts a privilege or other authorized protection from disclosure with respect to any document requested herein, Defendant is required to provide a privilege log containing the following as to each such document withheld:

- A. The type of document or information (e.g., letter, notebook, telephone conversation, etc.);
- B. The date of the document or transaction involving the information;
- C. The names of each author and any and all participants with respect to the information;
- D. The names of any and all signatories of the document, if any;
- E. The name of the document's current custodian;
- F. The present whereabouts of the document and/or the names of all persons with personal knowledge with respect to the information; and
- G. A statement of the grounds on which the claim of privilege rests with respect to each such document or piece of information withheld.

11. For the purpose of this discovery request, except to the extent specifically indicated in the "Definitions" section of this Request, the words used herein are considered to have, and should be understood to have, their ordinary, every day meaning and Plaintiffs refer Defendant to any collegiate dictionary such as Webster's New World Dictionary, Second College Edition by Prentice Hall Press. In the event Defendant asserts that the wording which has been used is somehow vague, ambiguous, unintelligible, indecipherable, confusing or such other boiler plate objections to avoid squarely addressing the specific discovery request, Plaintiffs refer Defendant to Webster's Dictionary for the plain meaning of the terms defined herein.

DEFINITIONS

1. The terms “document” or “documents” are defined to be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of this term in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a), including, without limitation, electronic or computerized data compilations. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.

2. The term “identify” when used with reference to an individual person shall mean to give, to the extent known, the person’s full name and all other names or aliases by which the individual has been known, present or last known business and residence address, telephone number, and when referring to a natural person, additionally, the present or last known place of employment. If the person is deceased, provide the exact or approximate date and place of death. Once a person has been identified in accordance with this subparagraph, only the name of that person need be listed in response to subsequent discovery requesting identification of that person.

3. The term “identify” when used with reference to a document or written communication shall mean to give, to the extent known, the (i) type of document; (ii) general subject matter; (iii) general description of the document; (iv) date of the document; (v) author(s), addressee(s), recipients(s), and the person(s) who signed the document; (vi) the number of pages, if the document contains more than one page; (vii) a description of any attachments or supplemental items incorporated within the document; and (viii) the transaction, act, or occurrence to which each document related and the substance of the document. If the document was, but is no longer in the possession of the Defendant or subject to the Defendant's control, state what disposition was made of it.

4. The term "identify" when used with reference to an oral communication, discussion, conversation or any other oral statement, shall mean to (i) identify the person who made the communication and person(s) to whom the communication was directed; (ii) state the date, time and place of such communication; (iii) describe in detail the substance of each communication and state the contents of the communication in verbatim if possible; (iv) identify any other persons present when the communication was made; and (v) identify any documents relating to the communication.

5. The term "identify" when used with reference to an organization or business entity, shall mean to (i) state the formal title of the organization or entity and any other names by which it is known; (ii) state the specific section or organizational unit involved; and (iii) state the business address, including the address of any separate or branch offices.

6. The terms "plaintiff" and "defendant" as well as a party's full or abbreviated name or pronoun referring to a party mean the party and, where applicable, its officers, directors, employees, partners, corporate parent, subsidiaries or affiliates.

7. The term "communication" means the transmittal of information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries or otherwise).

8. The terms "person" and "party" are defined as any natural person or any business, legal or government entity or association, sovereign state or juridical entity.

9. The term “concerning” means relating to, referring to, describing, evidencing or constituting.

10. The terms “all” and “each” shall be construed as all and each.

11. The connectives “and” and “or” shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope.

12. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa.

13. The terms “You” and “Your” refer to the International Islamic Relief Organization, including any subsidiary, affiliate, and/or branch office, IIRO USA, and any officer, director, trustee, employee, attorney, consultant, accountant, agent, or representative acting on the International Islamic Relief Organization’s behalf.

14. The term “IIRO USA” shall refer to any IIRO subsidiary, affiliate, branch office, or other entity located within the United States, including without limitation, the entity organized as a Virginia corporation in July 1991 by Sulaiman Al-Ali under the name International Relief Organization, Inc., the entity subsequently incorporated as the International Islamic Relief Organization in Washington, D.C. by Sulaiman Al-Ali, and any entity operating with the assumed name or under the name of either the International Relief Organization or the International Islamic Relief Organization.

15. The term “Plaintiffs” shall refer to Plaintiffs in Federal Insurance Co. v. al Qaida, Civil Action No. 03-CV-6978 (RCC).

16. The term “Contribution” shall mean the giving, bestowing, granting, awarding, bequeathing, and/or providing of money, checks, services, logistical or administrative support, assets, rights, securities, real estate or any goods, tangible or intangible, including the giving of any “zakat.”

17. The term “material support or resources,” as defined by 18 U.S.C.S. § 2339A, shall mean currency or monetary instruments or financial securities, financial services, lodging, training, expert advice or assistance, safehouses, false documentation or identification, communications equipment, facilities, weapons, lethal substances, explosives, personnel, transportation, and other physical assets, except medicine or religious materials.

18. The term “international terrorism,” as defined by 18 U.S.C.S. § 2331(1), shall mean activities that -- (A) involve violent acts or acts dangerous to human life that are a violation of the criminal laws of the United States or of any State, or that would be a criminal violation if committed within the jurisdiction of the United States or of any State; (B) appear to be intended -- (i) to intimidate or coerce a civilian population; (ii) to influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion; or (iii) to affect the conduct of a government by mass destruction, assassination or kidnapping; and (C) occur primarily outside the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, or transcend national boundaries in terms of the means by which they are accomplished, the persons they appear intended to intimidate or coerce, or the locale in which their perpetrators operate or seek asylum.

19. The term “domestic terrorism,” as defined by 18 U.S.C.S. § 2331(5), shall mean activities that -- (A) involve acts dangerous to human life that are a violation of the criminal laws of the United States or of any State; (B) appear to be intended -- (i) to intimidate or coerce a civilian population; (ii) to influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion; or (iii) to affect the conduct of a government by mass destruction, assassination or kidnapping; and (C) occur primarily within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States.

20. The terms “Kingdom of Saudi Arabia” or “KSA” shall mean the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, including any agency, instrumentality, organ, political subdivision, official, or agent of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.
